"Wherear, The wast industry is one of the leading industries of the state of Ulah, and a great source of revenue to her people, and there seems to be a disposition to sidetrack everything in favor of silver, which we believe to be unjust and unfair—also unrepublican—and we denounce such a procedure. We believe in the free colmage of silver at a ratio of it to 1, but we believe that the currency question should stand upon its merits, also the principles of motection.

Therefore, be it resolved, That it is the sense of this convention that the wool grovers of Ulah heartily erdorse the action of Senator Arthur Brown, as indicated by hits vote upon the question of himetallism and protection.

"JOHN C. MACKAY, Chalrman,"

Theresolution quoted is a warm one

"HENRY HARKER Secretary."

The resolution quoted is a warm one for a man running on what is presumed to be a silver ticket to sign.

For instance, those who have denounced Arthur Brown and have oncoured Frank J. Cannon—and they are legion, one meets them every yard lie travels; those who have declared that Brown was wrong and Cannon was right when the time to vote came; that silver should be made the paramount issue, and that all others should be relegated to the background until it is recognized, these tolks will no doubt take great pleasure in voting for a man who declares they are wrong, and that silver should be left alone to werk out its own salvation.

It will be refreshing to the mining men, who believe until silver is resorted, there should be left alone to work out its own salvation.

All of which is signed "Henry Harker, Secretary."

It will also be refreshing to the voters who have stood up in the templese and synagogues, as it were, on the corners and in the middle of the block, inside and outside, and benared Arthur, Brown's action, to rend: "Thorsfore, Be it Remolved! That it is the Seinse of this convention that the wood growers of Ucah heartily endorse the action of Semator Brown, as indicated by his voce upon the question of bimetafflem."

Which is also signed "Henry Harker, Secretary."

Which is also signed "Henry Harker, Secretary."

There are numerous members of the opposition who are soing to scratch the analysis of E. G. Rognon, Mrn. Weils, L. G. Hardy and George R. Etnery, because the voters believe they are tinged with a gold sentiment. It has been openly stated they would not be voted for because they are believed to be friends and adherents of Arthur Brown. Up to date Harker has been regarded with but little suspicion, although there are those who have asserted that he was off color, as it were. Now the matter is settled. Every one who reads will know just where he stands and can govern himself accordingly.

Republicans without number have raffled around Frank J. Cannon and chosed him to the othe because he declared his object in voting against proceedion wan to force upon the east the alternative; do semething for silver and the west, or we will do nothing for protection and the topherson.

This action is ouzzling the county committee. Its several and collective hearts are sore. When its candidates do not dwell together in unity, how can any of them hope to be elected. It joss house. game, and there is mourning in the joss house.

The Republicans are becoming alarmed at the activity of the Democratic women, who are now hustling for all their intensity of purpose is worth, and with good effect. Converts to the Democratic ticket are being made every day. The Republican mesdames and misses were active a week ago in attempting to fool some of the Democratic into voting the rooster and then marking an X opposite the name of one Republican candidate; but The Herald's expose of this trick has shut them off, and they are now puzzling their heads to think of something new to attempt. The Democratic women who are the officials of the several precincts held meetings at headquarters yesterday, at which plans were formulated for the work. Every lady present—and there were over 160—was carnest in the expression of her sentiments.

By the way, the Republican women started a canvass in the Second ward yesterday. It is presumed this work is being done all over the city, although nothing definite in the way of information could be ascertained. They are not attempting to discover the politics of the head of the homejust that of his better half.

One of these canvassers struck a snag at a home down on Third West when she ran against a housewife who declared she was going to vote the Democratic ticket. "Your husband is a Republican, is he not?" asked the canvasser.

"He is," was the reply.

"Then why do you not vote the same ticket?" asked the enthusiastic Republican.

"Why, madame? Why? Well, in the first place I have a mind of my

"Is just too, too, too, too," and let it go at that, as the man said when he marked fis X up by the rooster. Then he continued:

"Free shiver independence, We're going to vone them in; We'll carry this election, Jack Daveler's going to win."

Then a chorus was decided upon. It runs smoothly like this:

There is going to be a "grand" concert and ball by the Scandinavian-American Republican club at G. A. R. hall this evening. Lewis Lewison and Peter Jonnson were out hustling for attendants yearerday and furnishing tickets to girls galore. All the candidates on the Republican ticket will be there, and a hopping old time is anticipated. There will be no speeches permitted. Nothing but song goes That eminent Scandinavian, Harry Joseph, will sing "Ar mitt namn skrivet der?" with variations to suit himself, and several other songs. No admission fee will be charged the candidates to get inside, but when it comes to the matter of escape—well, that's different. It is expected that every-

Highest of all in Leavening Power,—Latest U. S. Gov't Report. Dr. Faist spake at Mammoth on Wednesday evening and at Eureka on the evening before and was greeted with good houses at both places. In Millard county he followed Holbrook and addressed meetings at three places where the Republican candidate had spoken the night before. His andiences were good. Holbrook is not winning any favor in any of the places his talking in. He is like a wet blanket. Dr. Faist says: "I believe in electing Bryan, a Democratic congressman and a legislature which will send a Democrat to the United States senate to hold up his hands. Lincoin-was elected by Democrat; there is no disputing that assertion. There were not enough Whigs and abolitionists in the country to elect him single handed and alone. They also elected a senate and house which voted money to carry on the war. The situation today is about the same as it was then, and Bryan should receive the same support as did Lincoin.
